

CHBA CENTRAL INTERIOR
2022/23 MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM SCHEDULE A

(To be completed by a new or relocating builder applicants prior to Board review.)

CHBA Central Interior is a professional residential building association of members and as such strives to maintain a high standard of principles among its membership, particularly its builder members.

All new and relocating builder applicants acknowledge and agree to the following requirements as a condition of membership:

- Two year probationary period
- Provision of names and contact information of all new homeowners for the homes you have built in the two years immediately prior to applying for membership as well as providing names and contact information of all homeowners of the homes you build during your probationary period
- Make available, if requested, building permits pulled during your probationary period
- For each new home built during the probationary period, a builder appointee of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to visit the building site from time to time to view your progress and building practices

As a new builder applicant, I have read the requirements listed above and agree to abide by them. I acknowledge that failure to comply with the above requirements and to meet the ethical standards of the CHBA may result in termination of Membership in CHBA Central Interior.
